List of specific record(s):

Id like information on issued building permits and building plans between the W Hotel on 123 Washington Street and the 911 Memorial grounds. As far as I know, the currently empty lot across the street from the W is 130 Liberty Street. Im looking to potentially buy an apartment in the W Residences in the W Hotel building and would like to know if theres a risk that something would be built to block the current view. Thanks, Morten Marott
