Records seeking: I worked for the Port Authority from about 1972 until about 1977 as what was then known as a Golden Girl. We were a small group of college students who worked the piers - mostly Saturday and Sunday arrivals and departures and whenever transatlantic ships came in. We helped passengers through Customs, especially if they spoke French or Italian. My boss was a man named John Sullivan. I am writing because I am approaching retirement age and my time with NYNJ Port Authority will count towards my NYSTRS credit. I would really appreciate it if this information could be tracked down. Thank you in advance for your help.
